I am in the midst of a series of treatments at the moment and they are slowing me down a lot.

I will get better in a month or two so you will have to understand that I cannot do a lot of the things I usually do.

The problems I have can and will be cured I am assured by the Doctors so things can only improve.

I will be continuing with the CVS processing as I can do that from home. So, nothing has changed there and it is being kept up to date.

CVS numbers as of 25/3/25 = 2,306.
